STRANGERS

(FRANCE 2004 - PATRICE LECONTE - 104 MINS)
Because she picks the wrong door on the 6th floor of a Paris office building, Anna (Sandrine Bonnaire) ends up confessing her deeply personal marital problems to a financial adviser named William Faber (Patrice Luchini). Touched by her distress, somewhat excited as well, Faber does not have the courage to tell her that he is not the psychiatrist she thinks he is. The two develop a curious and increasingly deep intimacy that results in one of the most unusual and quietly erotic male/female relationships you will ever see depicted on film.
