NOTES ON A SCANDAL

(UK 2006 - RICHARD EYRE - 92 MINS)

The Oscar-nominated "NOTES ON A SCANDAL" stars Judi Dench as Barbara Covett, an emotionally repressed veteran history teacher at a high school in London. When a young art teacher (Cate Blanchett) starts at the school, Barbara feels romantically drawn to her, and becomes increasingly obsessed with this married woman. More than one scandal unfolds in this well-acted dark drama, where sexuality in and out of school afflicts nearly everyone. Adapted from a 2003 novel by Zoë Heller, the film has the rich claustrophobic style of an intimate stage play, but the intense opening up of the interior lives of these characters is the real subject.
